

Manassas Gazette 05 Jun 1869

End of a long litigation – On Friday last; Judge Purcell, of the Orphans Court, received a dispatch from Richmond notifying him that his suit against the Gibson heirs, that had been pending in the courts for nineteen years, has been decided in his favor. The estate lies in Prince William County, Va., embracing the FLEETWOOD and FLATBUSH Estates, with thirty years rents due. The estate is estimated to be worth $200,000 – National Intell.