

Alexandria Gazette 10 Jun 1830

TRUST SALE – By decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the Fredericksburg District, pronounced in the case of Graham vs Brett and wife, on the 21st day of May 1830, the subscriber has been appointed trustee, in the place of Gerard Alexander Jr. the former trustee, in the deed executed by Richard A. Brett and Margaret his wife, on the 17th day of September 1818 to secure to Ann Graham the payment to certain sums of money therein specified.

Pursuant to the terms of said deed, and to the authority vested in him by the decree aforesaid, the subscriber will, on the 22nd day of July next, at the Tavern of Peyton Norvill, in the town of Hay Market, offer for sale to the highest bidder, for ready money, THE TRACT OF LAND CALLED SPRINGFIELD, on which said Richard A. Brett now resides, situated in the County of Prince William, and within three miles of the Town of Hay Market. The tract contains about TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY ACRES, has a comfortable dwelling house, good orchard, and several springs of excellent water, with a fertile soil, and in the centre of a delightful neighborhood, this farm, for its size, is one of the most desirable in the county of Prince William.

The subscriber, selling as trustee, will only convey as such but believes the title to be unquestionable.

Thomas Lawson, Trustee
Fredericksburg, Va.
June 5, 1830

Warrenton Independent Register 24 Jan 1835

To Margaret Atcherson, Job Davis, and Susan Davis his wife, John Coulter, Edward Stone, George Stone and Sarah Stone, deceased, Alexander and Martha Coulter, children of Thomas Coulter, deceased, Edgar Flowray, son of Gordon Flowary and Sarah Flowary, deceased: Take notice, that on Thursday, on the 12th day of February 1835, between sunrise and sunset of that day, we shall proceed to take the deposition of George Norman, Thos. Pettit, William Roach, Hezekiah W. reeves and William J. Reeves, at the Tavern House of Peyton Norvill, in the Town of Brentsville, in the County of Prince William, and State of Virginia, to be read as evidence in a suit in chancery now depending in the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery, for the county of Prince William, where you are plaintiffs and where we are defendants; and should we fail to take the depositions on the day appointed, we will take them the succeeding day, and should we not be able to take them in one day, will continue from day to day, until all are taken.

Courtney Reeves
Cordelia Reeves

Alexandria Gazette 17 Sep 1849

FOR RENT – My Public House and lot, in Brentsville, the county seat of Prince William. This property has been occupied by Capt. Peyton Norville, deceased, since the year 1843. The buildings are the most commodious and suitable to the accommodation of those who have to attend the courts of said County, and the public generally, of any in the place. One of the corners of the Tavern, with a good cellar under it, is well adapted for a country store and counting room, without any interference whatever with the Public House. The situation may be occupied advantageously by a Store and Tavern Keeper; but I will rent separately or together. Possession will be given the first of January next. On the 18th instant, the Furniture, Bedding, etc., now in use in the Tavern, and about the cost of $2000 in recently purchased goods in the Store, will be sold to the highest bidder, on a credit of twelve months.

B. E. Harrison
Prince William County, Va.