

Grand Jury Presentments June 3, 1844
Virginia - Prince William County to wit.

Grand Jury Presentments for June 3, 1844 are George W. Larkin for standing a stallion without a license, Lewis Berkeley for standing a stallion without a license, Nimrod Triplett for standing 2 stallions without a license, Thomas F. Owens standing a stallion without a license, William G. Legg standing a stallion without a license, John Johnson & Ben F. Thomas for retailing ardent spirits, Addison N. Thomas for changing public highway, Courtney Reeves for retailing merchandise without license, Edward Robinson for keeping Tavern without a license, Thomas Foster for retailing merchandise without a license, Richard Graham for retailing merchandise without a license, Martin W. Porter for retailing merchandise without a license.

We the Grand Jury of & for the body of the County aforesaid being empanelled, sworn & charged this 3rd day of June 1844 upon our oaths present George W. Larkin for standing a stallion in this present season in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw one of the commissioners of the court.

And we do present Lewis Berkeley for standing a stallion this present season in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw, one of the commissioners of the court.

And we do present Nimrod Triplett for standing a stallion this present season in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw, one of the commissioners of the court.

And we do present Thomas F. Owens for standing a stallion this present season in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw, one of the commissioners of the court.

And we do present Thomas Foster for retailing merchandise in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw, one of the commissioners of the court.

And we do present Richard Graham for retailing merchandise in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw, one of the commissioners of the court.

And we do present Martin W. Porter for retailing merchandise in the county aforesaid without a license on the evidence of Thomas T. Shaw, one of the commissioners of the court.