

Williams vs Williams 4 December 1848

Clerk's Loose Papers – Prince William County

To the worshipful County Court of Prince William County Virginia sitting in Chancery, Your orator May S. Williams widow & relict of John W. Williams deceased, respectfully sheweth unto your Worship that she was married to John W. Williams in the month of June 1839 in the County of Prince William Va. and that at the time of her said marriage to him that he was seized in fee of a tract of land lying in said county adjoining the lands of Thomas Cannon & George T. Adams & others being the same tract that was allotted to her, said his bond was one of the heirs of his father the late George Williams deceased, containing about three hundred acres. And that her said husband hath died intestate and that your said orator claims dower in said tract of land & the rents of the same & in any other lands that may be discovered to have belonged to the said John W. Williams at the time of his death in said county. Your orator says that her said husband died leaving the following children his heirs at law to wit, John W. Williams who was 21 years of age who went to the west some time since, and being on board of a steam boat to which she is informed some accident occurred, has not since been heard from; Henry F. Williams; George Williams; Delia F. Williams; Francis D. Williams & Elizabeth Williams, the two latter under the age of fourteen years & she asks that they made defendants to the bill and answer each allegation or both & grant such other & further relief as may be meet & equitable & she will comply.
